TOPIC: ANATOMICAL TERMS FOR THE HEAD AND NECK

Head and Neck ■ Frontal: _____ ■ Otic: Front of your head. ■ Nasal: Nose ■ Orbital: _____ ■ Buccal: _____ ■ Mental: ———— Buccal swab swabs your inner cheek. mentum = chin mens = mind Oral: Mouth ■ Cephalic: ______ ■ Occipital: of the head. occipital bone, occipital lobe. ■ Cervical: cervix = neck, cervix = neck of uterus.

PRACTICE: Based on the anatomical terminology, the superior orbital fissure is related to which structure?

PRACTICE: During a prenatal exam, Connie is told there is a chance her child has hydrocephalus. She knows the prefix hydro means water. Where is she expecting there to be excess water in her child's body?

a) Neck.

a) Neck.

b) Head.

b) Head.

c) Eye.

c) Eye.

d) Nose.

d) Nose.