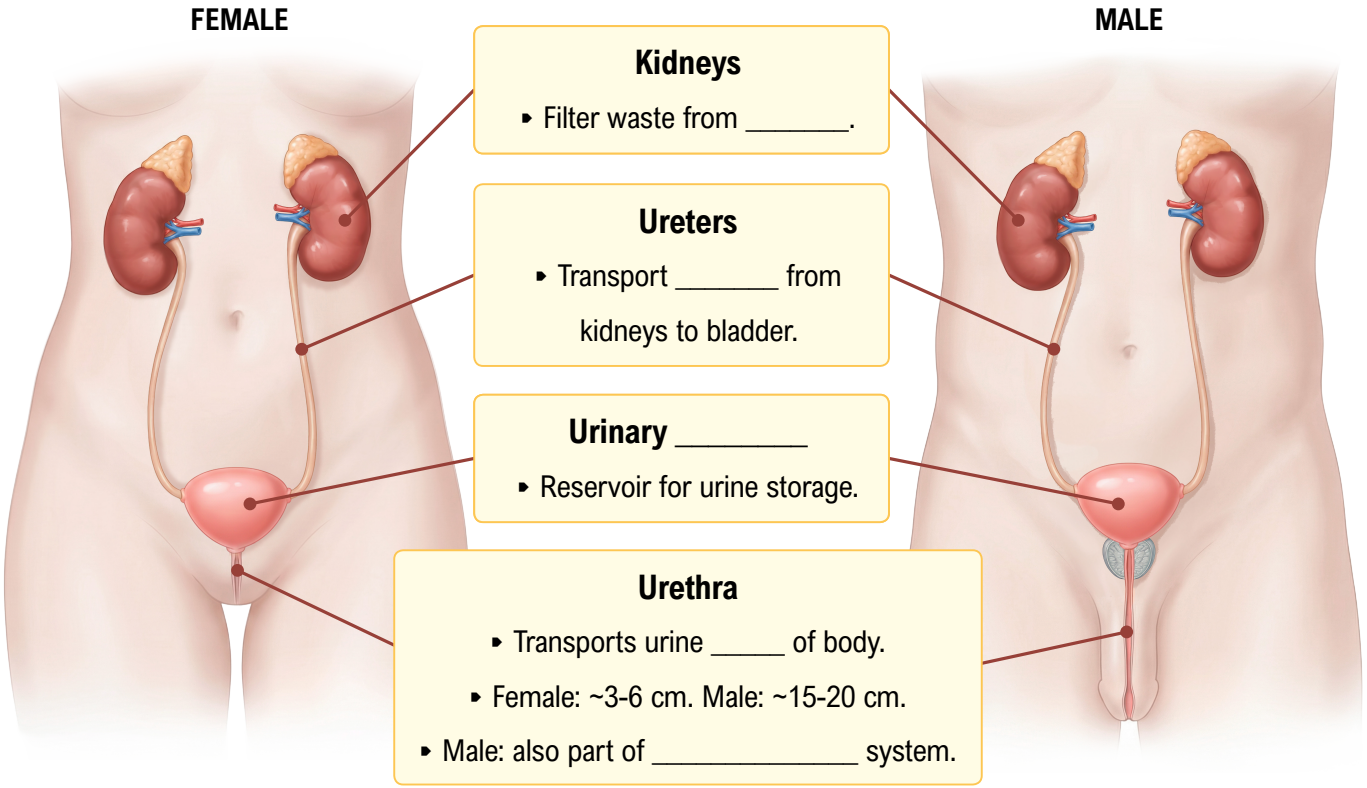
TOPIC: STRUCTURE AND FUNCTION OF THE URINARY SYSTEM

- The urinary system includes:



PRACTICE

Identify the structure that connects the kidney to the urinary bladder, facilitating the transport of urine:

a) Urethra.
b) Renal pelvis.
c) Ureters.
d) Urethral sphincter.

PRACTICE

Which of the following correctly identifies a difference between the male and female urinary tracts?

I) Female bladders are on average larger than male bladders.
II) The male urethra is significantly longer than the female urethra.
III) The male urethra is a component of the reproductive system, while the female urethra is not.

a) I & II.
b) I & III.
c) II & III.
d) I, II, & III.