

TOPIC: RESOCIALIZATION AND TOTAL INSTITUTIONS

Resocialization

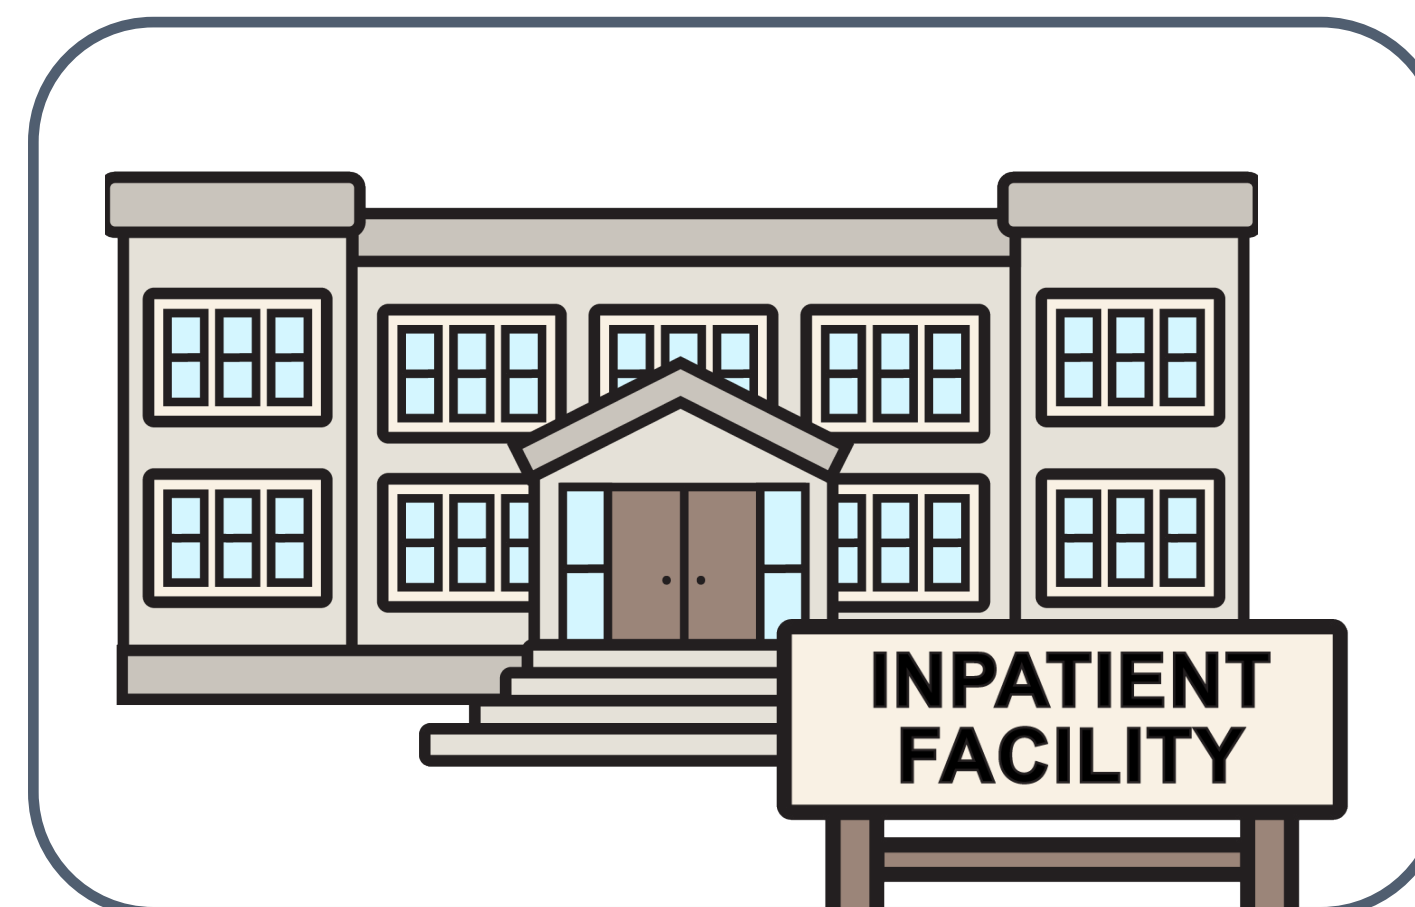

- ▶ A process through which old behaviors & attitudes are removed and _____ ones are instilled.
- ▶ Occurs when _____ in a new social environment or undergoing a major life transition.

Total Institution

A social setting in which:

- ▶ People are _____ from society.
- ▶ Daily life is standardized and controlled by an _____ figure.

TOPIC: RESOCIALIZATION AND TOTAL INSTITUTIONS

EXAMPLE

Which of the following are examples of resocialization in total institutions?

- I. After joining the military, Tyler is required to live on base, follow a strict schedule, wear a uniform, & obey his superiors.
- II. After moving to a senior living facility, Edith is expected to stay on the premises, follow the rules set by staff, and participate in staff-led community activities.
- III. Freya gets a new job at a bank, where she frequently interacts with wealthy clients and travels for business meetings.

a) I & II.

b) I & III.

c) II & III.

d) I, II, & III.

PRACTICE

What distinguishes resocialization from socialization?

- a) Resocialization involves learning a society's norms and values.
- b) Resocialization involves unlearning old norms and developing new ones.
- c) Resocialization typically happens during childhood and adolescence.
- d) Resocialization occurs mainly through peer interaction.